

But he did not prevent them from quarreling and breaking their toys.

¿Cuál podría ser la intención de la Sra. Redcliff al hacer esto?

I think her intention was to show them that idleness and plenty do not give happiness.

Eran mucho más felices cuando trabajaban con su padre y con su madre.

Did the ugly man take them back to their parents?

Si, así lo hizo.

And what did the parents say?

No les gustó oír decir que sus hijos habían faltado á su palabra.

Did they beat them?

¡Oh! no. Eran tan buenos y querían tanto á su niño y á su niña, que olvidaron lo que habían hecho.

Me gustan más que la Sra. Redcliff.

Now, my dear children, we have finished our last lesson. I am happy to see with what pleasure you have learned; and I hope that your parents will be satisfied with your progress.

Pero él no les impidió que riñieran y rompieran sus juguetes.

What could be Mrs. Redcliff's intention in doing this?

Creo que su intención fue el demostrarles que la ociosidad y la abundancia no dan la felicidad.

They were much happier when they worked with their father and mother.

¿Los llevó otra vez á la casa de sus padres el hombre de mal aspecto?

Yes, he did.

¿Y qué dijeron sus padres?

They were not pleased to hear that their children had broken their word.

¿Los zurraron?

Oh! no. They were so kind and they loved their boy and girl so much, that they forgot what they had done.

I like them better than Mrs. Redcliff.

Ahora, mis queridos niños, hemos terminado nuestra última lección. Estoy contento al ver con qué gusto habéis aprendido, y espero que vuestros padres estarán satisfechos con vuestros adelantos.
