

The book cover features a dark red, textured background with intricate black floral and vine patterns. The design includes a wide border and a central frame. The text is embossed in black ink. At the top, the author's name 'A. DUMAS' is written in a cursive script, followed by 'EL' in a smaller, similar font. Below this, the title 'SPERONARE' is printed in a large, bold, serif font. At the bottom, the text 'BIBLIOTECA DE LOS NOVELISTAS' is arranged in three lines, with 'NOVELISTAS' being the largest. Below that, 'V. CH. BOURET' is printed in a smaller serif font. A small, light-colored rectangular label is attached to the left edge of the cover.
